

Yu-Ting Chiang—Economist

Joined the Bank Staff June, 2021

Education PhD Economics and Finance
University of Chicago
2021
BBA
National Taiwan University
2014

Areas of Interest Primary field: Macroeconomics Secondary fields: Information economics, Macro-finance

Working Papers

"Financial Intermediation and Aggregate Demand: A Sufficient Statistics Approach," with Piotr Zoch, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Working Paper 2022-038B, November 2022.

"Attention and Fluctuations in Macroeconomic Uncertainty," Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Working Paper 2022-004B, March 2022.

Other Publications

"Strategic Uncertainty over Business Cycles," Working Paper , Job Market Paper, posted January 2021

"A Higher-Order Approximation Method for Dispersed Information Models," Working Paper , Unpublished working paper, posted November 2020

"Media Competition for Attention," Working Paper , Unpublished working paper, posted October 2020